

This Project is being led by Cultural Asset Management Group, a multi-faceted Canadian consulting company providing multiple services to the cultural sector including:

- Storage
- Consulting
- Appraisals
- Collections management
- Knowledge management
- Resource development
- Technical services
- Product distribution for Gaylord museum and library resources

CAM Group is a trusted provider for not for profit, government, corporate and individual clients. With clients ranging from museums, galleries and libraries across Canada, to the Toronto District School Board, Manitoba Hydro, Absolut, Brock University, The Town of Aurora, Bonded Services, Fairmont Hotels, Prime Properties, Remington Group and numerous individual collectors and estates, CAM Group has rapidly distinguished itself as one of Canada's premier cultural consulting firms.

Its storage services are located in the GTA with over 30,000 square feet of low, medium and high standard care for diverse products including collectibles, antiques and fine art.

Cultural Asset Management Group is composed of a cohesive team of museum and consulting professionals that are committed to delivering leading edge planning and collections management services to our clients. Our team has the experience and expertise from the grass roots up to and including executive level cultural leadership. We are a distinct leader in the cultural field, providing integrated collections services from storage to collections management and consulting services.

Its Founding Partners include Shelley Falconer, previously the Director, Exhibitions and Education and a senior curator with the McMichael Canadian Art Collection. She has worked with a variety of important cultural organizations including Sotheby's England, Waddington Galleries, England, the Art Gallery of Ontario, Art Gallery of Hamilton, the Government of Canada, the Ontario Government and the University of Toronto.

Founding Partner Shawna White's varied career includes experience at prestigious institutions including the Ashmolean in Oxford, UK, the Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto and the State Museum of New York in Albany. Ms White was a Canadian Art Specialist at Sotheby's (Canada) Inc. for a number of years and most recently served as Assistant Curator at the McMichael Canadian Art Collection.

Senior Consultant Ian P. McCallum has extensive experience in the cultural industries, his past position include President and CEO of KPMG Entertainment, Mississauga Living Arts Centre and numerous senior positions throughout the Federal government. Ian continues to work with senior artists on significant projects in Canada and abroad and brings a diverse skill set to both CAM Group and the project.

